

Calling all Artists
&
Patrons of the Arts !

The 2nd Annual Starving Artists' Sale

Do you have artwork that you have created that has been stowed away and forgotten? You don't want to discard it, your "gift list" has been exhausted, and you need the space for new exciting works?

How about donating it for resale!? You get a tax write off, someone gets an original piece of art at a very reasonable price and Addison Center for the Arts raises funds for updating and enhancing their gallery space or to help bring in an exhibit or event of special interest?

Drop off dates for donations are: Wed. July 19th - Sat. July 22

Bring all works to: Addison Center for the Arts- 213 N. Lombard Rd.
Addison, IL 60101 (door #4- Addison Trail High School)

Drop off times are : 10 am until 4 pm

ACA will be accepting framed and unframed art, sculpture, jewelry, prints, photography, art equipment, supplies, art books, craft supplies/tools.

We would like to have original and handmade art, but prints and other "artsy" items would be acceptable!

ACA is a 501c3 charitable organization. Just as you would donate a bag of clothes to Goodwill, you will drop off your pieces fill out a donation form and receive a donation slip from ACA for your records.
